

The Sleepless Fox and the Search for the Dream Stone

Text and illustrations by Julia Nüsch

Series WHAT ARE YOU DREAMING ABOUT?

Age 4+, 40 pages, 21 x 26 cm

Hard Cover

EUR 18,00 [D]

ISBN 978-3-949276-04-0

Publishing date: 25 September 2024

All rights available

Material available: German & English review copy

Rainer Maria the fox loves digging tunnels, but his favorite thing to do is collect stones. When his beloved dream stone disappears one day, he excitedly seeks advice from his friends. Will they find the stone together so that the fox can finally go back to sleep? After the eager dung beetle and the clumsy giraffe, the third volume in the series WHAT ARE YOU DREAMING ABOUT? A heart-warming story about solidarity from the pen of Julia Nüsch, who also created the magical illustrations. At the end of the book, readers can also learn amusing facts about the fox.

THE SERIES

WHAT ARE YOU DREAMING ABOUT? This is the question asked by the many animals in Julia Nüsch's series of books about dreaming. The series began with the eager dung beetle Johann Wolfgang, and in the second volume the giraffe Annette experiences all kinds of adventures. Each year, a new titles is planned.

THE AUTHOR AND ILLUSTRATOR

Julia Nüsch, born in Hamburg in 1979, studied Illustration at the HAW Hamburg from 2002 to 2009 and simultaneously worked as a graphic designer and illustrator for an agency in Hamburg. Since 2009, she works freelance for agencies, publishing companies and magazines. Julia Nüsch lives in Hamburg. She already illustrated other titles of the Kindermann Verlag, which are Rainer Maria Rilke's »The Panther« and William Shakespeare's »Der Kaufmann von Venedig« (The Merchant of Venice).

