

Siegfried the Dragon Slayer

After Gustav Schwab
Retold by Anna Kindermann
Illustrated by Lena Winkel

Series LEGENDS FOR CHILDREN

Age 6+, 40 pages, 22 x 30 cm
Half-linen, Hard Cover

EUR 22,00 [D]
ISBN 978-3-949276-35-4

Publishing date: 20 September 2023

All rights available

Material available: German & English review copy

The young king's son Siegfried roams the world fearlessly. One day he meets a dragon in a lime forest and kills it in battle. He covers his body with dragon blood, which makes him invincible. When he learns that the enchanting princess Kriemhild has been kidnapped by an evil dragon, he embarks on an adventurous search. Will he manage to free Kriemhild from the dragon? And what about the mysterious gnome treasure?

THE AUTHOR

Anna Kindermann, born in 1987 in Berlin, studied and worked in China and France, among other places, before becoming head of marketing and foreign rights at Kindermann Verlag in 2015. In 2020, she took over the management from her mother Barbara Kindermann. Her debut as an author, »The Twelve Heroic Deeds of Hercules«, was also published by Kindermann Verlag.

THE ILLUSTRATOR

Lena Winkel, born in 1993 in Westerwald, studied illustration in Hamburg and Paris. She has been illustrating children's and picture books for various publishers and publishing comics and zines in her own publication since 2014. In 2022 she was awarded the Comic Prize of the Berthold-Leibiger-Foundation.

